

General Knowledge 17

1.	Which football team were known as the 'Biscuitmen' up until the 1980's?	Reading
2.	Who was the first person to sign the Declaration of Independence making his name a synonym for writing your signature?	John Hancock
3.	The European reindeer is known in North America by what name?	Caribou
4.	How many dots are there on the Domino's Pizza logo?	3
5.	The 2005 wedding of Prince Charles and Camilla Parker Bowles was delayed by a day so that Prince Charles could attend which religious man's funeral?	The Pope's
6.	In computing what does DMA normally stand for?	Direct Memory Access
7.	How many hotels are there in a game of monopoly?	12
8.	In the song "puff the magic dragon", where did Puff live? Honah Lee
9.	Bakken is the oldest theme park in the world having opening in 1583. In which country will you find it?	Denmark
10.	Which of the countries in South America comes last alphabetically?	Venezuela