

Food and drink (Number 4)

1	What is the name given to the second in command in a professional kitchen?	Sous Chef
2	"Bib-Label Lithiated Lemon-Lime Soda" was the not very catchy original name of a soft drink that we know as what?	7 Up
3	What is the name of the two handled, narrow necked jar used by ancient Greeks and Romans for holding wine?	Amphora
4	Which country does Grey Goose Vodka come from?	France
5	What are the 2 main ingredients of the soup Vichyssoise?	Leek and Potato
6	In Greek cookery, what is the name given to a selection of small dishes served as a meal or appetizer?	Meze
7	Known as Eggplant in America, what do we call this vegetable?	Aubergine
8	What is the name of the Homepride man with the bowler hat in their logo?	Fred
9	What does brown rice become when its rice bran is removed?	White rice
10	In Japan a No-Pan Kissa is a restaurant where the waitresses wear short skirts and no knickers. What do you usually find on the floor of these restaurants?	Mirrors

