

20th Century History (Number 6)

1	Papa Doc and Baby Doc were controversial 20th Century rulers of which country?	Haiti
2	In 1957, who accepted an invitation to become prime minister after the resignation of Anthony Eden?	Harold Macmillan
3	Which came first? Star trek or Prozac?	Star trek
4	Piper what was a North Sea oil platform destroyed by an explosion in 1976?	Alpha
5	During World War 2, life jackets were named after which actress?	Mae West
6	What British military campaign took place between 10th July and 31st October 1940?	Battle of Britain
7	In which month of 1963 was JFK assassinated?	November
8	What items were issued to British pilots in World War II, which could be soaked in water and unfold to reveal a map for escape if the pilot was captured?	Playing cards
9	In which country is Gallipoli where there was a large invasion of allied forces in 1915 during WW1?	Turkey
10	999 is introduced as the emergency number in the UK, the Hindenburg goes up in flames and Neville Chamberlain becomes PM. Name the year.	1937

Carpe Simia Quizzes