

People 6

1.	Which conservative politician, born in 1955, held the posts of secretary of state for transport and secretary of state and chancellor of the exchequer?	Philip Hammond
2.	What nationality was the navigator Abel Tasman who was the first Westerner to go to New Zealand and gave his name to Tasmania?	Dutch
3.	In 1947, the first televised White House address was given by which US President?	Harry S. Truman.
4.	Name the famous guitarist whose collaboration with the Gibson company produced their first solid electric guitar in 1952?	Les Paul
5.	Prince Edward and Sophie Rhys-Jones's wedding cake was decorated with what items of sports equipment?	Tennis racquets
6.	Which author's first names were Alan Alexander?	AA Milne
7.	Elsie Wright and Frances Griffith are famous for their 1917 photograph which supposedly proved the existence of what?	Fairies
8.	Aesop, famous for his fables came from which country?	Greece
9.	What is the real name of rapper and musician Eminem?	Marshall Mathers
10.	Who took over hosting desert island discs since August 2018 when Kirsty Young went on sick leave?	Lauren Laverne