

1.	Which former Conservative leadership hopeful announced that he is quitting as an MP to run for London mayor as an independent candidate? Rory Stewart
2.	The government of which country announced a 16p daily tax on voice calls made through WhatsApp and other apps in October before scrapping the plans hours later amid clashes between security forces and protesters? Lebanon
3.	It was the final of "Britain's got talent; the champions" in October but which act were crowned as the best of the best? Twist and Pulse
4.	Who won the Heptathlon gold medal at the Athletics Championships in Doha in October? Katarina Johnson-Thompson
5.	An eco-friendly council estate in which city has scooped this year's prestigious Stirling Prize for architecture? Norwich
6.	A stained, cigarette-burned cardigan unwashed in nearly three decades sold at auction at the weekend for £260,000. Who was the previous famous wearer of the cardigan? Kurt Cobain
7.	How did Christina Koch and Jessica Meir make history in October? By completing the first ever all-female spacewalk
8.	In October a food-industry group warned shoppers in the UK that a side-effect of the Brexit process could be a shortage of which traditional element of Christmas dinner? Pigs in blankets
9.	Which travel company announced that they are buying all of Thomas Cooks shops after the company went into receivership? Hays travel
10.	Greg Rutherford was crowned winner of which celebrity reality show in October? Celebrity Masterchef
11.	Which airline completed a test of the longest non-stop commercial passenger flight (over 19 hours) as part of research on how the journey could affect pilots, crew and passengers? Qantas
12.	What amazing feat did Eliud Kipchoge achieve in October? Running a sub-two-hour marathon
13.	Chancellor Sajid Javid ended up in a spat with which celebrity who he described as "incredibly rude" for refusing to shake his hand at a film premiere? Hugh Grant
14.	The game Fortnite began a second "chapter" in October, creating a new map to form the battlefield. How did it destroy its previous island? An asteroid strike