

1.	Who did Democratic presidential candidate Joe Biden announce as his running mate in the November elections in the USA, the first black woman to be in such a role in the US? Kamala Harris
2.	Forbes magazine announced the top earners of the year, Who was the highest paid actor? Dwayne Johnson
3.	Olivia de Havilland dies at the age of 104 in August 2020 holding the record, along with her sister, for being the only sisters to have ever won Academy awards. Who was her sister? Joan Fontaine
4.	The mis-handled storage of which chemical led to catastrophic fires in the port of Beirut in early August? Ammonium nitrate
5.	In August, which cricketer became only the seventh player to take 500 wickets in Test cricket? Stuart Broad
6.	Barakah nuclear power plant became the first commercial power station in the Arab world in August. In which country is it? UAE
7.	What animal made headlines in August when she was photographed in Germany being chased by a nudist, whose bag she had stolen?! A wild boar
8.	A UK-based company was given approval in August to release 750 million genetically modified mosquitoes in an attempt to reduce local populations which spread viruses in which US state? Florida
9.	At the end of August, Africa declared itself finally free of which infectious disease that affects the central nervous system? Polio