

General knowledge 16

1.	Which football Stadium used to be called the Walkers Stadium?	The King power stadium
2.	What does the D stand for in D-day?	Day
3.	How many points do you get for placing the Q tile in scrabble on a triple letter space?	30
4.	In which decade was the 999-emergency telephone number introduced in the UK?	1930's (1937)
5.	The nickname of Ford's classic Model T, launched in 1908, sounds similar to a British rock band. What is it?	Tin Lizzie
6.	Who wrote the hugely successful 'Shopaholic' series of novels, featuring the main character Rebecca Bloomwood?	Sophie Kinsella (Real name Madeleine Wickham, under which she also writes)
7.	Nathans on Coney Island hold an annual 4th July eating competition which is broadcast on TV. What do the competitors have to eat?	Hot Dogs
8.	Which "strictly come dancing" winner has perfumes called Rose Quartz and Amethyst?	Alesha Dixon
9.	Legoland Windsor opened in 1996, but where was the first Legoland opened?	Denmark
10.	Which of the Spice girls' nicknames comes last alphabetically?	Sporty