

Nasty Food and drink (Number 2)

1	In 2013 a supermarket chain in the north of England was forced to remove bags of 'monkey nuts' from sale for what reason?	They did not contain the warning that this product may contain nuts
2	Ergot poisoning was common in the middle ages but eating what food caused it?	Bread
3	In 2009, KFC started selling the double down, a shockingly unhealthy burger in which the bun was replaced by what?	Fried chicken fillets
4	The Sardinian cheese Casu Marzu is noted for what added element in its fermentation and presentation?	Maggots
5	Fugu is a potentially deadly Japanese delicacy but how is it better known?	Puffer fish
6	Bosintang is a Korean soup of declining popularity made chiefly of what meat?	Dog
7	Haslet is a chopped, pressed and cooked cold loaf of what?	Offal
8	The avocado fruit is named after which part of the body?	Testicle
9	Which rodent, dipped in honey and poppy seeds used to be a dessert in Ancient Rome and is still eaten in Slovakia apparently?	Dormouse
10	What type of food can be either Blanket or Honeycomb?	Tripe