

TV 10

|     |                                                                                                                                        |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1.  | Which 1990's TV show centred around a New York doctor who clashes with the culture of the people in the Alaskan town that he moves to? |
|     | Northern Exposure                                                                                                                      |
| 2.  | Which actor links CSI NY and Forrest Gump?                                                                                             |
|     | Gary Sinise                                                                                                                            |
| 3.  | What was the name of Siegfried Farnon's younger brother in the television series 'All Creatures Great and Small'?                      |
|     | Tristan                                                                                                                                |
| 4.  | Which city was the setting for the late '90's and early 2000's TV show Ally McBeal?                                                    |
|     | Boston                                                                                                                                 |
| 5.  | Who played Mike Baldwin in Coronation Street?                                                                                          |
|     | Johnny Briggs                                                                                                                          |
| 6.  | Who hosted the first National Lottery live show in 1994?                                                                               |
|     | Noel Edmonds                                                                                                                           |
| 7.  | Dave Lamb is a voice over artist, best known for his sarcastic voice over of which TV programme?                                       |
|     | Come dine with me                                                                                                                      |
| 8.  | What are the names of Marge's twin sisters in the Simpsons?                                                                            |
|     | Patty and Selma                                                                                                                        |
| 9.  | Which US singer/musician played Leather Tuscadero in the television show 'Happy Days'?                                                 |
|     | Suzi Quatro                                                                                                                            |
| 10. | Who sang the theme tune for the 80's TV programme Supergran?                                                                           |

|  |                |
|--|----------------|
|  | Billy Connelly |
|--|----------------|