

1.	Which comedian legally changed his name to Hugo Boss in March? Joe Lycett
2.	The cookery show "ready steady cook" came back on to our screens with who as the host? Rylan Clark-Neal
3.	Which famous music festival, held annually in Austin, Texas was cancelled due to coronavirus fears for the first time in its 34-year history? South by Southwest
4.	Which Pop star unveiled her first original song for a decade, weeks after revealing a rape and kidnap ordeal that led her to retreat from the public eye? Duffy
5.	Who is joining The Great British Bake Off as co-host with Noel Fielding replacing Sandi Toksvig? Matt Lucas
6.	Harvey Weinstein was sentenced in March for how many years in prison for rape and sexual assault? 23
7.	The Duke and Duchess of Sussex made their last public appearance as working members of the Royal Family in March with an engagement at a service for what at Westminster Abbey? Commonwealth Day
8.	This year's sport relief saw pop star Frankie Bridge, DJ Nick Grimshaw and other stars take part in a gruelling four-day trek across which desert? The Namib Desert
9.	Actor and comedian Roy Hudd died in March aged 83. But which character did he play in ITV soap opera Coronation Street? Archie Shuttleworth.