

Professions (Number 1)

1	The old English profession 'cofferer', typically employed in a royal household, equates nowadays to a what?	Accountant
2	What trade takes its name from the old word for twelve dozen?	Grocer
3	What is the traditional profession of a leprechaun?	A cobbler
4	What is a person called that makes arrows?	Fletcher
5	What does a cooper make?	Barrels
6	Someone who applies sheet lead for roofing is called what?	A plumber
7	What does a wainwright make?	Wagons
8	If a staff with a coiled serpent is said to represent medicine, what represents education?	A torch
9	In medieval times, what did a nob Thatcher make?	Wigs
10	What name is given to life scientists who study animals, observing them in the laboratory and in their natural habitat?	Zoologists

Carpe Simia Quizzes